Market Research
Insights

Uncovering insights with data analysis

Agenda

2 Financial Behavior

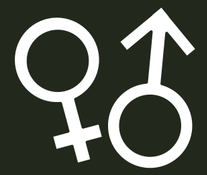

3 What they value

4 Financial Interests

5 Willingness to pay

2. Financial Behavior

Understanding the respondents maturity level (Questions 1 to 3)

Gender # 1

Does gender financial behavior differ?

Social Class # 2

Does social class financial behavior differ?

Age group # 3

Does age group financial behavior differ?

Gender

Women

- More women than men do not do any financial practice
- Driven by savings challenges
- Desire to start investing.
- Use pen and paper

Men

- Higher level of depth in their finance
- Invest without an strategy
- More interest in more advanced services
- Use excel

These are on average results for all the respondents

Social Class

Lower

- More people do not have any financial practice, but understand they should
- Use simple tools for financial control
- Can not save is a problem for them
- Want to start investing

Higher

- Higher interest in more complex financial topics
- Use digital tools for financial control
- Invest with strategy

These are on average results for all the respondents

Age group

Younger (25-49)

- Higher level of self portfolio management
- Digital tools for finance control
- Worry more about risks
- Higher percentage want to start investing

Older (50-60+)

- Higher level of depth in their finance
- Traditional method for finance control (pen and paper)

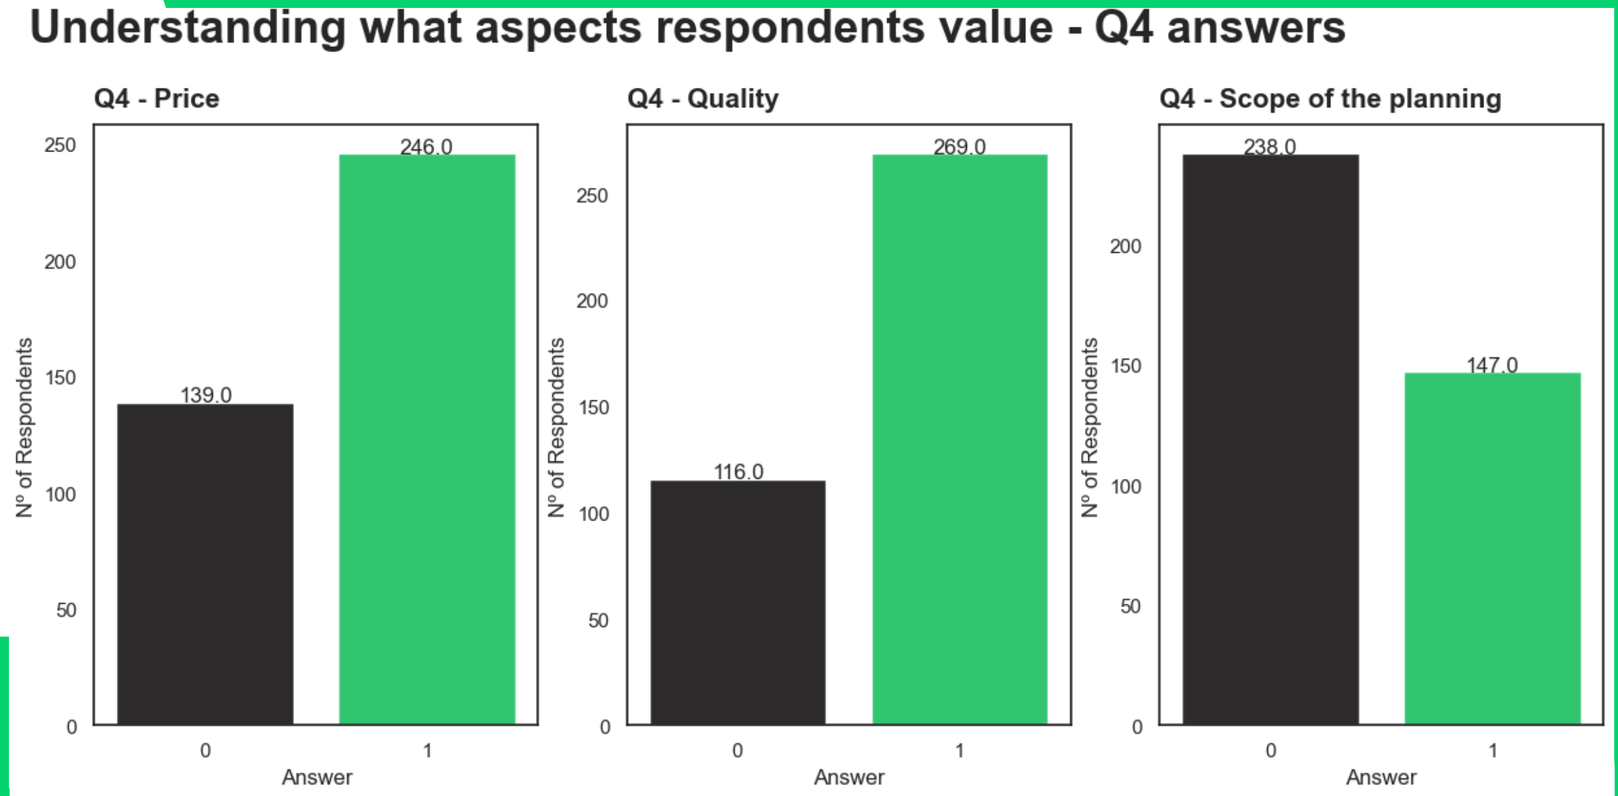

These are on average results for all the respondents

3. Aspects respondents value

Understanding what aspects influence the decision making process

Price	Quality	Company name
Family recommendations	Expert recommendations	Company philosophy
Scope of Planning

Main Aspects

Price

246 votes

Quality

269 votes

Scope of planning

146 votes

Aspects X Demographics

General Public Insight

- Price, Quality and Scope of planning are the most import aspects

Social Class Insight

- Class A assigned a lower importance to price and greater importance to the quality of the service

Gender Insight

- Men and women have similar needs to the general public

Age Group Insight

- Younger age groups (25-29, 30-39, 40-49) care even more about the quality of the service

4. Financial Needs X Demographics

Understanding respondents financial interest (Question 5)

General Public Insight

- Financial Management, Asset Management, Retirement Planning and Risk Management

Social Class Insight

- Class A stated less need in Financial Management and retirement Management when compared to other groups
- class A stated a higher need for tax planning services

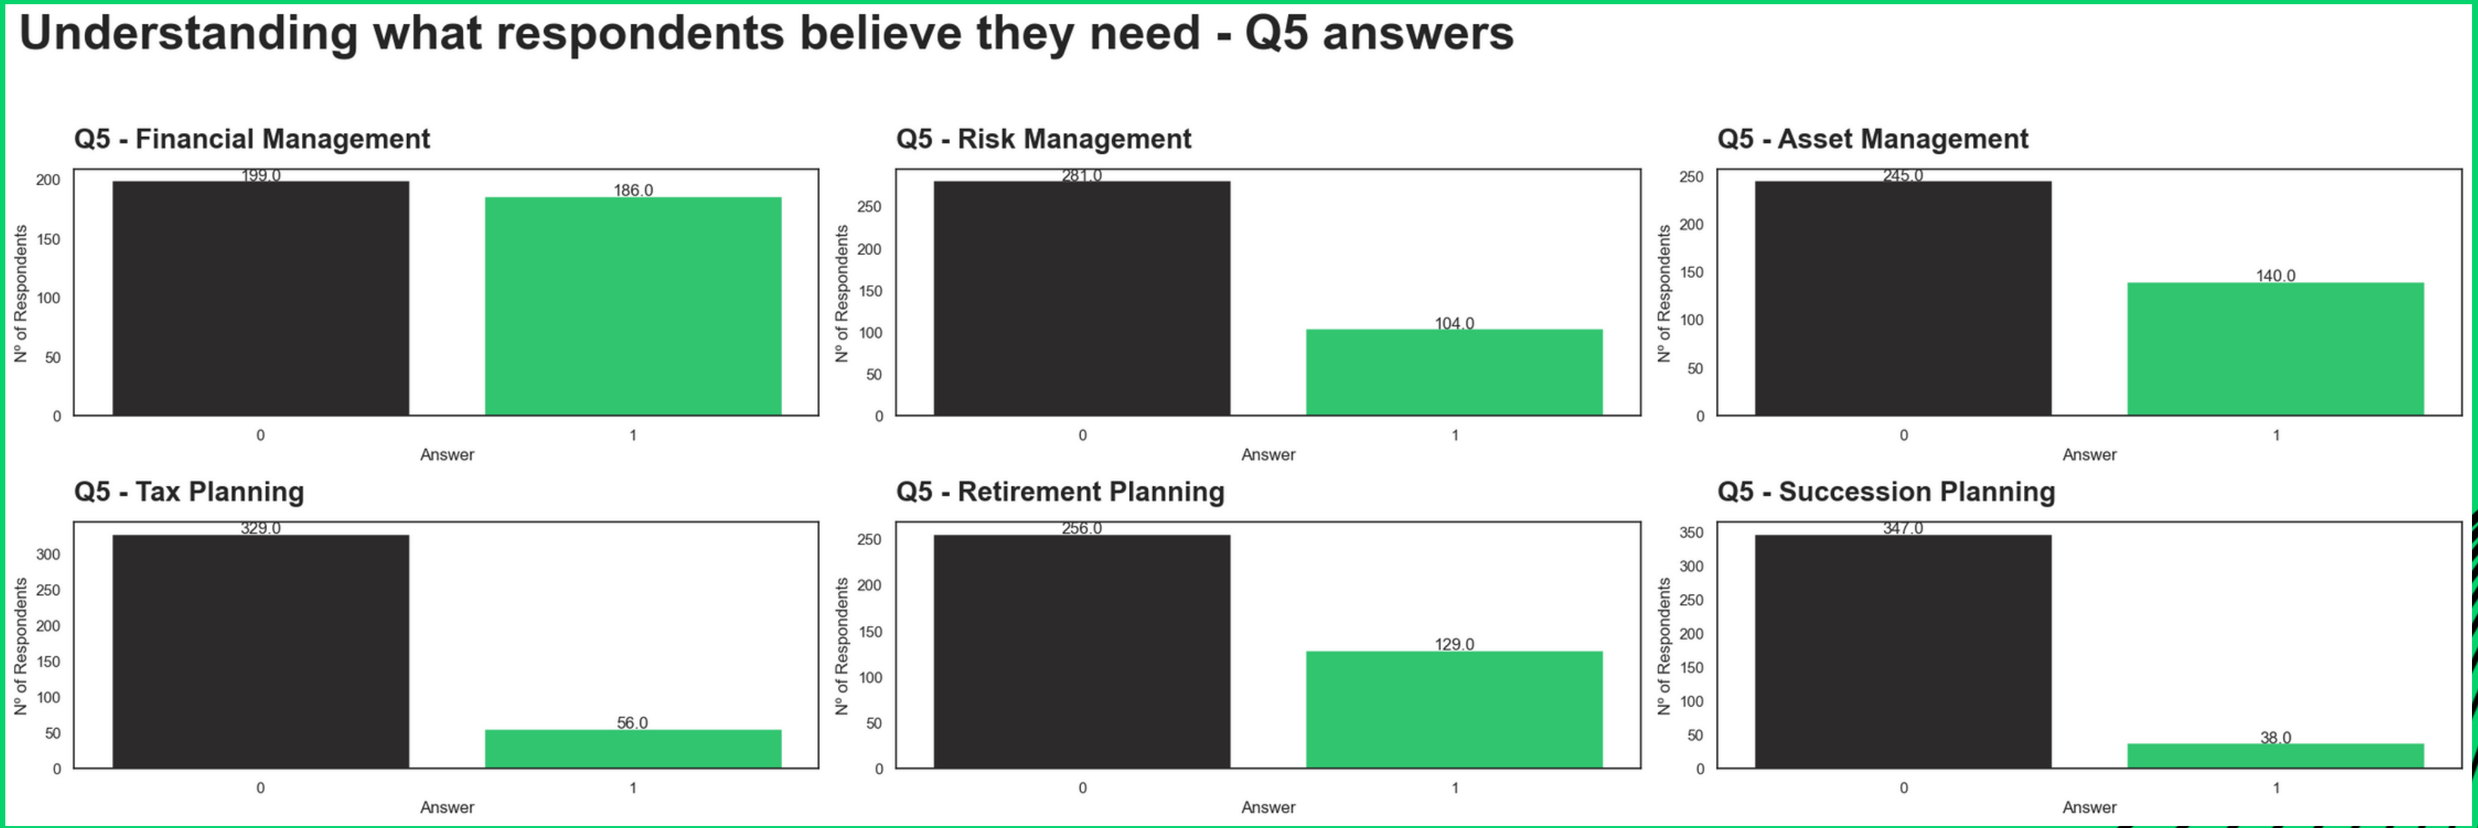

Gender Insight

- Men and women have similar needs to the general public

Age Group Insight

- Older age groups (50-59, 60+) stated slightly higher need need for succession planning

General Public

5. Willingness to pay X Demographics

Understanding how much respondents are willing to pay for a financial service (Question 6)

General Public Insight

- 72 % are willing to pay some value, and 50% would pay 1 to 2 thousand
- Overall people are not willing to spend large amounts of money

Social Class Insight

- Class A is more willing to pay in general and more value as well

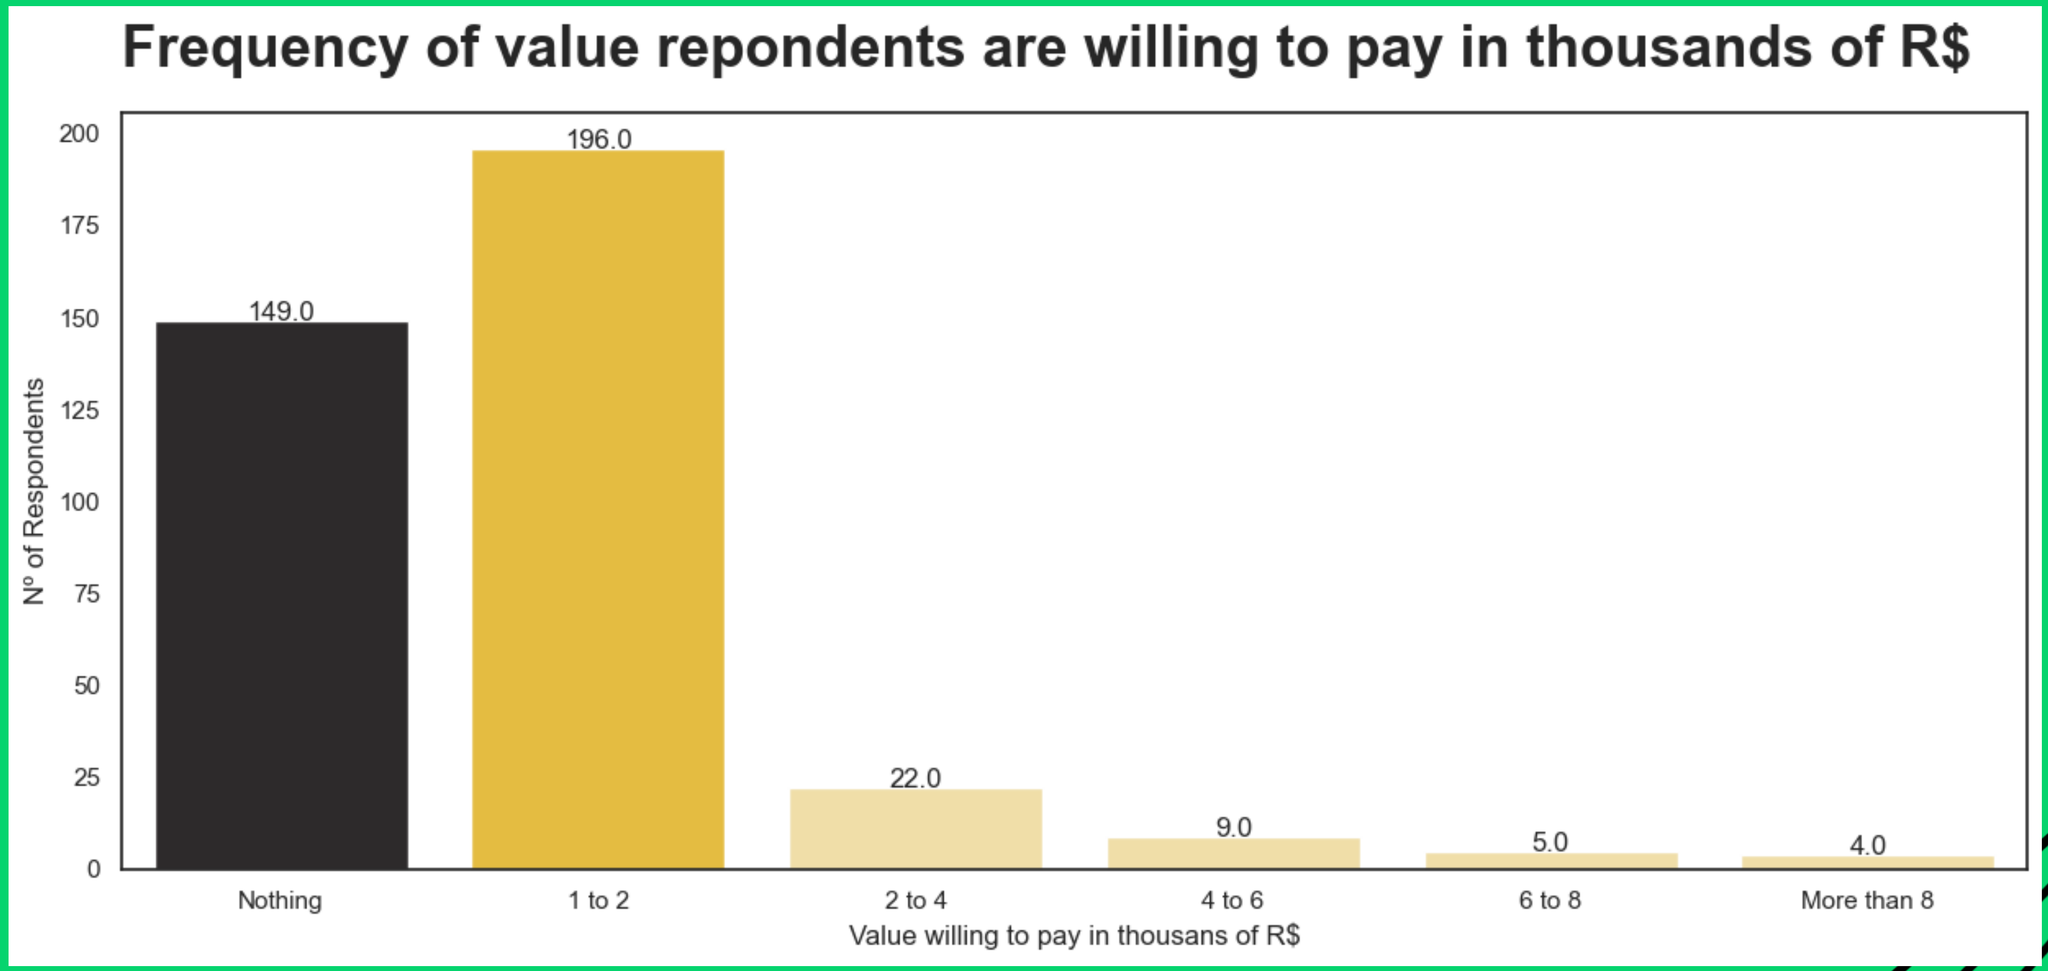

Gender Insight

- Both genders are willing to pay similar amounts

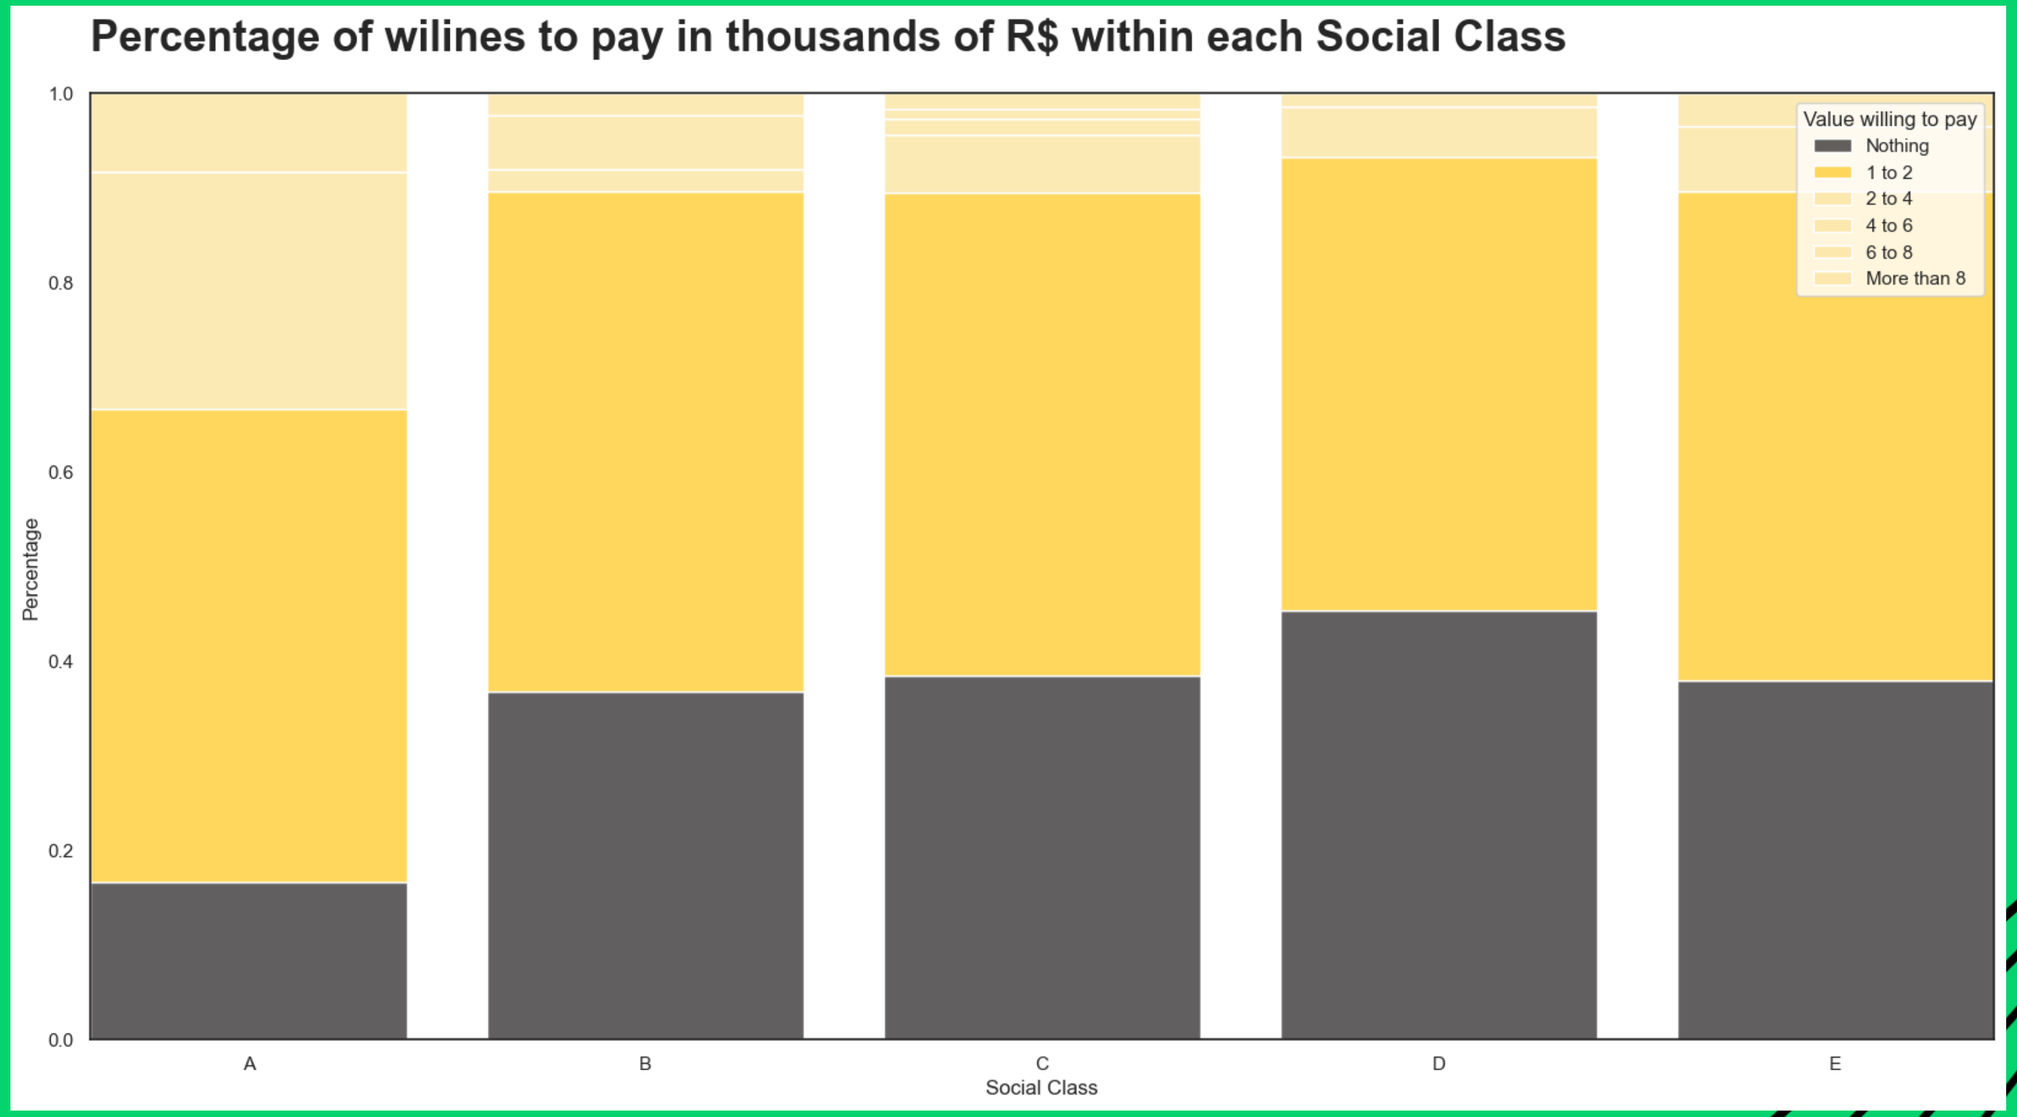

Age Group Insight

- Younger Group (25-49) are more willing to pay
- Older Group (50-60+) are less willing to pay

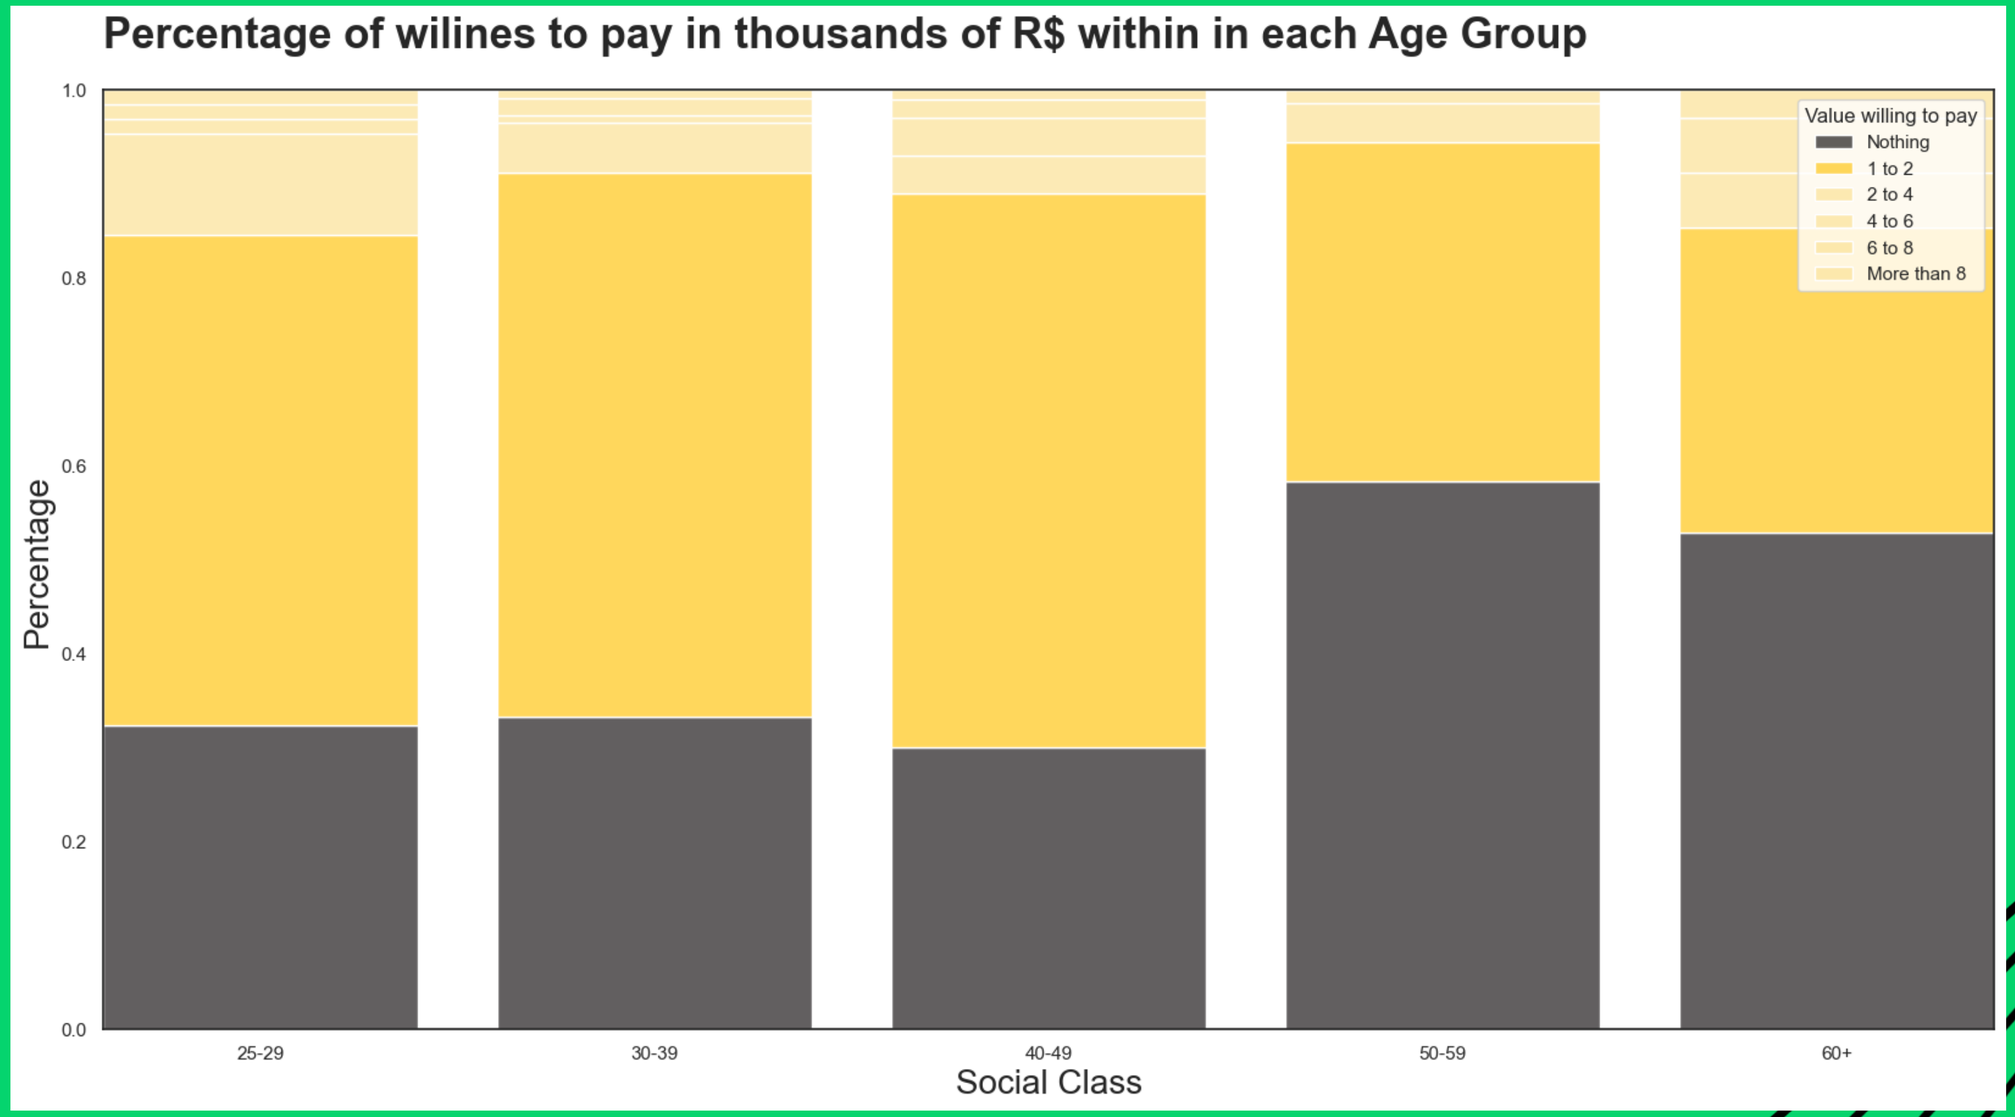

General Public

Social Class

Age Goup

Percentage of wilines to pay in thousands of R$ within in each Age Group
Value willing to pay
Nothing
1 to 2
2 to 4
4 to 6
6 to 8
More than 8
Percentage
1.0
0.8
0.6
0.4
0.2
0.0
25-29
30-39
40-49
50-59
60+
Social Class

5. Willingness to pay X Questions 3,4,5

Understanding how much respondents are willing to pay for a financial service (Question 6)

General Public Insight

- Willingness to pay seemed to not be related to any of the question answers from question 3 to 5

Thank you for your time

Good Luck!

